Please detail the reason and add any relevant information relevant the nomination of the above-mentioned Candidate	We believe it is important to start with new, fresh leadership on the IFSC board— leaders who bring new ideas, different skills, and a fresh perspective. However, it is equally important that these leaders retain the positive aspects of the organization and only change what is necessary or beneficial. Therefore, we propose the appointment of new vice presidents who can begin their work and learn over the next years, gradually taking on more responsibilities and assisting the president. In this regard, we recommend Joachim Driessen as a new vice president. He is a passionate climber and brings extensive experience in leading an international business. He has served as president of the NKBV for ten years and is a member of the UIAA’s management board. He has proven his ability to communicate effectively with people from all continents and knows how to support the development of climbing in various countries. We believe he is the right candidate for this role.
